

PET GROOMING & BOUTIQUE FOR SALE: SOUTH PASADENA

SUMMARY

If you love animals and enjoy promoting pet health then this is a great business for you. Pet grooming was one of the few industries to grow during the great recession and there are many reasons this grooming business and pet boutique can grow exponentially.

The business clears $65,000 in discretionary earnings per year. They can easily be doing double the revenues with a little outreach to the surrounding community and adding complementary products in the showroom. This business has been in the same location in the San Gabriel Valley for 12 years. The business is well known for its turnaround time and excellent grooming techniques.
